The Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR) provides public access to environmental information as defined in the Regulations.

FOIA and EIR promote openness and transparency.

Information is provided in two ways:

2. Any person is entitled to request information which subject to the application of any exemptions must be provided free of charge.

The Act does not give people access to their own personal data. Subject Access Requests are dealt with in accordance with the Data Protection Policy.

- Any person knows they can make a request and who to contact.
- All appropriate staff will be able to recognise and respond appropriately to a valid request for information.
- That there is awareness amongst staff, contractors or others having contact with ICC that the duties under FOIA and EIR may impact on the ability to guarantee confidentiality of information

- Information provided to ICC from third parties may be the subject of a request for information. In considering whether exemptions apply, ICC will seek to consult with the third party but the legal responsibility for deciding whether or not the information should be released rests with ICC.
- Any requests for internal reviews will be dealt with in accordance with ICCs Complaint Policy and will be responded to within twenty School days as recommended by the Information Commissioner.
